

We are here to celebrate the graduates of three major programs

Data Science
Informatics
Statistics

Keep analyzing data!

Statistical science, like a telescope, lets us see what the unaided human eye cannot.

Enjoy the wonder each time the answer given by some abstract statistical formula is validated by subsequent experience.

The graduates

Congratulations to the graduating class of 2024.

The future awaits you!

Before you head off, take a few moments to talk about your time at Michigan.
